Good Morning All,

Tom and I continue to be impressed by how much is on our plates and how you calmly and diligently continue to forge ahead. This week's report is meaty. It doesn't list our day to day busy work. Thank you for all you do. We are lucky to be a part of this team, and we know it. Thank you.

Please find attached the SABSO weekly report for this week. We are preparing for two meetings in a couple of weeks with the intention of finalizing reports before the end of the FY for RFT(Reduced Form Tools), NAMS and a second call to work through BCA (Benefit Cost Analysis). Quality reviews are currently ongoing for CGE which we anticipate finalizing next week, and NAMS shortly thereafter, work continues on Economic Guidelines, helping OCSPP TSCA SACC committee finalize Asbestos. SABSO also continues to receive additional names for nomination and continue to track those down. Not to mention pulling together data for the FACA database, Presidential Transition Book, and FY 21 Planning documents.

I'm keeping this short, as we have a lot of heavy lifts, and we are very grateful for all you do-and, I hope this finds you and your loved ones well? I want to add one more ASK, I need you all to continue to stay healthy, focus on balance, go for walks, get some sunshine, fresh air, check in with your loved ones, love on your pets or significant others, and stay....sane.

Thank you and wishing you a good weekend, as always, please don't hesitate to call if you have any questions.
